PROFILE

I have been engaged in all kinds of art my whole life. Not that I had a choice- with an artistic family there's nowhere to run! But I shouldn't be complaining- if you name something in the art department, chances are I can do it. I am currently a Web design and Graphic advertisement student at New Bulgarian university (not that being a painter isn't rewarding). Right now I am exploring the PR world by being a PR assistant at Orbico Bulgaria, leaving my comfort zone and finding my true calling. Being a PR is really bringing out the artist in me!
